What is a welcoming Directory message?

A welcoming message is one that...

What can I include in my message?

Belonging Statement

We know students who feel connected to their college are more likely to complete and succeed. Including a diversity or inclusion statement in your welcome shows students that you value and respect differences and are aware of inequities and challenges that different students face.

“Is your statement inclusive of different types of diversity, including, but not limited to: race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, age, socioeconomic status, religion, and disability? Which campus resources would you like to direct your students to for further support?” - Brown University

Belonging Statement

Example: “I want to stress that ALL students are welcome in my class, regardless of national origin, religious affiliation, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical or mental challenges, socioeconomic status, race, or cultural background. Together we can work together to create an environment that supports growth, enjoyment for learning, embraces mistakes and fosters kindness and mutual respect. Our differences afford us the greatest opportunities for learning and collaboration.”

Create a welcoming message

Please join <https://tinyurl.com/FLEXWDM> and place your name next to the page you want to use to create your welcoming message.

- Make sure to indicate if you have completed your message and want us to update it for you or if you intend to complete an Omni training with Tim Drueely.

Counseling Faculty - Optional breakout session to collaborate on a welcoming message template and communication plan for how students should contact and make a counseling appointment!
